1 of 3 Locally To Get Asian Flu Shots

(Special to the Avalanche)

New York, Oct. 7 — Health authorities are pushing preparations in Crawford County and in other areas to cope with Asian flu, which is expected to flare up to a peak in this country during the winter. Already, cases of the disease are showing up at an increasing rate.

Emergency hospital plans have been drawn up. The public has been instructed on measures to be taken if and when the disease strikes. Inoculations have been given to nurses and to others who are needed to care for the sick and to provide essential services.

For the most part, however, the public health authorities are depending on the use of vaccine, now in mass production as they

Three Generations Mark Sept. 19th As Birthday

Three generations of James Hamilton McDougalls will celebrate their birthdays jointly next Sept. 19.

There was considerable excitement in Garden City Osteopathic Hospital Thursday — Sept. 19 — when a baby boy weighing eight pounds, one ounce was born to Mrs. Ruby May McDougall, of 32142 Genessee Court, Wayne.

Naturally, the youngster was named James Hamilton McDougall, after his father, and his grandfather. That officially makes him James Hamilton McDougall III.

And all of the James Hamilton McDougalls now share a common birthday. All were born on Sept. 19, and in each instance the birth date fell on a Thursday.

James Hamilton McDougall I, Sept. 18, 1895, in Western, Mich. The four-year-old son of Grand Rapids — on Thursday, Sept. 19, 1923, in the afternoon — James Hamilton McDougall II was born. He was the third of seven children.

James Hamilton McDougall III is the third child of the junior Hamiltons. The others are Kenneth M., born Jan. 21, 1955 and Deborah Mae, born March 8, 1956.

Chamber of Commerce Minutes

Thursday, September 26, 1957, at 7:00 p. m.
Members present: Hines, Wood, Joseph, DuBois, Wolff, Sorenson, Post and Bond.

Members absent: Strong.
Meeting opened by President Post at 7:15 p. m.
Motion by Joseph seconded by Hines that the minutes of the past two meetings be accepted as read.

Motion by Hines seconded by Wood that Treasurer's Report be accepted as read.

Bill to be paid were discussed. F.M.T.A. Playtime Guide, Crawford County Avalanche and Telephone bill total $408.73.

Motion by Joseph seconded by Wolff that these bills be paid.
Motion by Joseph seconded by Hines that the contract for the 1957-58 Play Time Guide be signed.

A discussion was held concerning how to attract the Illinois people to Crawford County. It was tabled.

After a discussion, a motion by Wolff seconded by Hines that by-monthly meeting times be changed to the second and fourth Thursdays of each month and to start at 7:00 p. m.

Permission was given to the manager by the board to undertake the promotion of a boat landing on Lake Margrethe at the point where M-72 passes it.

It was explained to the board that school superintendent Hines had made available four of the school picnic tables for use in the city park.

There was a further discussion and agreement for chamber support to winter sports.

The board discussed the Chamber sponsored meeting of the resort and motel owners with Ben Porter, Agriculture agent with Joseph Cox, an extension Landscaping service for Michigan State U. A report of the coming meeting, October 8th, of resort, motel and restaurant owners with Gladis Knight who is part of the extension service of Michigan State U. to teach better tourist handling.

Motion by Joseph seconded by Hines that the meeting be adjourned.

Following is President Post's welcome to the new board and officers at their first meeting:

We have been chosen by the members to run this chamber for this year ending September 1, 1958. For the past three years the chamber has ended its fiscal year with a deficit. The amount of that deficit has been smaller each year showing that we are making progress and are gaining in selling the chamber to the merchants and people of the county.

Now you directors have elected me for a second year as your President and I feel as your President and a director that we as a board will be letting our members down very badly if we cannot end this year with a balance in the bank.

I personally feel that with a little extra effort by all of us in both our thinking and doing that this can be accomplished. If we make enough snow balls of good constructive workable ideas and present them in the proper way so our secretary can file them, he will hit more targets and bring in more money or membership dollars, to operate on.

Highway Safety Experts To Give Ideas To State Legislature

HIGHWAY SAFETY EXPERTS are digging deeper, for reasons why people die in automobile accidents.

They will present new ideas to the 1958 session of the legislature in the latest of a series of bills that has changed the nature of motoring in Michigan in the past three years.

Laws now limit the speed of automobiles, exact severe penalties for drunk driving and reckless driving, send drivers to special schools.

Highways are designed with the safety factor in the blueprints — divided super-roads with median strips, banked curves and fewer safety features.

Automobile manufacturers have stopped advertising speed to stress the deep dish steering wheel and safety features.

Now, the experts are tackling the remaining factor — the driver.

Drunk driving has for years been a serious crime behind the wheel.

Highway Safety Experts To Give Ideas To State Legislature

HIGHWAY SAFETY EXPERTS are digging deeper, for reasons why people die in automobile accidents.

Laws now limit the speed of automobiles, exact severe penalties for drunk driving and reckless driving, send drivers to special schools.

Automobile manufacturers have stopped advertising speed to stress the deep dish steering wheel and safety features.

Now, the experts are tackling the remaining factor — the driver.

Drunk driving has for years been a serious crime behind the wheel.

But police records show now that, while a driver often cannot be considered intoxicated under legal standards, his reactions after several drinks are slowed. He is a poorer driver.

The State Safety Commission is making a study of the problem of drinking drivers at the request of Secretary of State James M. Hare, its chairman.

Hare's alarm at the potential hazard of the drinking driver was stirred by a one-man field study in a tavern.

Hare told the commission he sipped soft drinks in the tavern for several hours, keeping tabs on how much alcohol motorists took on before getting into their cars outside.

He said the number was between three and eight cocktails.

What's to be proposed to meet the problem?
Hare figures there might be some way for bars and taverns to stop serving a driver before his driving skill is impaired. He also suggests there might be a concentrated proportional campaign to "shame" drivers into holding down their drinks before getting behind the wheel.

There are now several violations for which a driver can lose his license in Michigan.

The State Bar of Michigan may propose that a police officer immediately take away a driver's license after an arrest.

In exchange, the driver would get a temporary permit, regaining his permanent license after a court action.

This plan is expected to be proposed to the legislature, but critics already are complaining that it is unconstitutional — to deprive a person of property without due process.

A number of other safety bills, ranging from equipment on cars to speed are expected in the 1958 session.

DEMOCRATS HAVE DEVELOPED a habit of refusing to commit themselves on anything until the last moment, when the public attention is well-focused.

Gov. Williams makes it a point to file his nominating petitions on the last day. One year, he remained silent until he could prepare a statewide television show.

Then, he said he felt he had to run for re-election because his job in Michigan was "unfinished."

This year is no exception and the trend has extended to Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, the governor's protégé now in his second term.

Learning The Hard Way . . .

The Trojans learned the hard way that you don't get something for nothing. The question now is whether the forty-eight states will learn the same lesson.

The Post's editorial deals with federal grants to the states for all manner of purposes. The states used to take care of themselves — sewage plants, industrial-safety programs, health-research, etc., etc. In 1947, these grants came to $1,678,000,000. This year the total was about $4,272,000,000. It will be much higher next year if present plans go through.

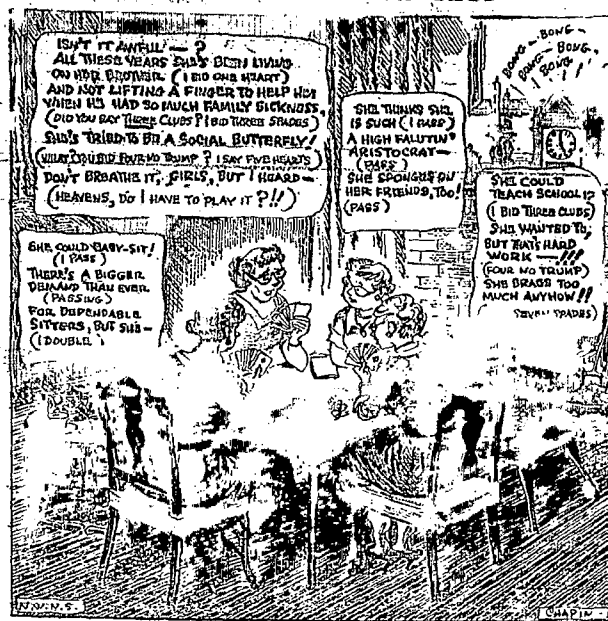

What this means is the states are living off the federal government to an ever-increasing extent. According to the Post, 20 states in a late year were beholden to the federal government for at least a fifth of their revenues. In Wyoming the proportion was 43 per cent — nearly half. In Missouri it was 32 per cent.

The Post quotes a statement made by an authority in 1952. He said, "If present trends in Federal-state relations continue for another quarter century, the states may be left hollow shells, operating primarily as the field districts of Federal departments and dependent upon the Federal treasury for their support." That forecast was as accurate as it was ominous. Is this what the American people want?

Writing On The Wall . . .

It is significant that a distinguished Democratic Senator, Lausche of Ohio, and a distinguished Republican Senator, Knowland of California, have both spoken out in favor of right-to-work laws — laws which give each individual the privilege of deciding for himself whether he shall join or not join a union, and guarantee him the right to his job in either case.

There is writing on the wall in the action of these Senators. More and more people, in and out of government, now see that corruption and bad practices in the unions stem directly from monopoly power — the power to tell a man that he must join and take the union's orders or go hungry. Not until that power is exercised and this form of "involuntary servitude" is legally forbidden, will it be possible to cleanse the unions of the crook, the racketeer, the goon, and the dictators.

First Look . . .

Two recent news items from widely separated regions are of unusual interest.

An Oregon newspaper asked the general manager of a New York company owning a metalurgical plant in Oregon about projected expansion plans. The manager said the plans were under discussion, but would develop slowly pending adoption by Oregon of a "realistic economic program, taxwise."

At about the same time, Pennsylvania announced that it was putting into effect a special and favorable tax law designed "to attract new industry."

Moral: States and communities looking for job-creating new enterprises had better take a long analytical look at their tax structure first.

He called the owner by telephone and together they hurried to investigate, discovering that the container back of the counter in which Mrs. John Bragrette butts had caught fire. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time and except for a small hole burned in the floor and clouds of smoke there was very little damage done. They did not find it necessary to call the city fire department.

The Retreat closed with a luncheon at noon.

October 6, marked the 17th Anniversary of the Church School. In 1940, there was a desire among the many neighbors and relations along the AuSable River, to have a Sunday School. The Church's Sunday School, The Church of the Latter Day Saints, met at the home of the Dan Babbitts. At this time the AuSable Valley Sunday School was organized through the efforts of Elder Allen Schour, using the materials from the church headquarters. There have been many souls brought into the work of the church. Many members have married and moved away.

The Babbitt's home housed the School during the summer months; the Max Laages would take it during the winter months, when they lived at the State Headquarters. They are now in Orlando, Florida. During the progress of these seventeen years, the school has been organized into a Branch of the main church, known as "The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints", headquarters at Independence, Missouri. Besides helping to finance the General Church with its hospital, college, auditorium, Rest Haven for the aged; the District of Northern Michigan, and many other things, the Branch bought a small house on Plum and Smith streets to move into until they could build on the two corner lots across from the school, which they purchased from Sam Laages.

The members have a very good start on their building fund, with hopes of a new church home on the two lots, which at this time, are loaned to the public school for recreational purposes. The Women's Department started their yearly meetings when they met at the home of Mrs. John Knecht, September 19, at which time the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Roy Newberry, Assistant Leader; Mrs. Earl Mathewson, Treasurer; Mrs. Theodore Stephan, Secretary; Musical Director, Mrs. Searles Vandenberg; Social Chair man, Mrs. John Knecht. The Cradle Roll Worker, Friendly Visitor and Teacher are to be appointed. The new officers will take charge the first of the year.

October 6 was promotion Sunday for the church school. The Gospel of The Restored Church was presented by the Youth, in the form of a radio program. Assisting them at the piano was Mrs. Bernard Fowler, singing: "The Old Path", "Let us go to the House of The Lord", "Book of Mormon, Hid for Ages" and "We Thank Thee O God, For A Prophet". Freddie Turner, and Louis Jensen sat at the radio, "turning in". Lacey Stephan, Jr., Penny Pettijohn, Jan Mathewson, Brian Ashton, Linda Bigham and Susan Olson gave the Script. The children found newly decorated floors as they moved into different class rooms.

A 1 o'clock dinner at Danebod Hall on Sunday, October 13, marked the observance of the 65th year of the Grayling Evangelical Lutheran Church. The tables were decorated with vases of vari-colored mums and a beautiful big red and white birthday cake, complete with candles. Rev. Harold Knudsen led the singing of grace, a sumptuous pot-luck meal followed, after which a favorite hymn, "This is the Day Which the Lord Has Given" opened the brief program.

President Wilhelm Raue was principal speaker and on behalf of the church board accepted several gifts which were presented to the church. Rev. Knudsen and other members of the group responded by reminiscing about the faithful members of the church. Since 1882 this church has been a spiritual part of the life of Grayling and shall continue in the path of God's work. Very appropriately, the group singing "Faith Of Our Fathers" closed a happy afternoon of fellowship.

Bear Hunt

second annual National Women's Bear Hunt.

The hot and dry weather that had hampered hunting conditions during the first day of the hunt, Saturday, were amplified Sunday, with the result that the only bear jumped eluded the dogs by running onto the high ridges on the north side of the Manistee River valley.

Dog handlers failed to raise the huge bear that had been wounded Saturday leading some of the guides to theorize that the big Bruin had recovered sufficiently from its wounds or that some other hunters had shot it when it ran out of the region where the women were hunting.

Mrs. Kunze was crowned queen at the annual Women's Bear Hunt party held Saturday night at Camp Arrowhead by Novak of Alpena, who was special gifts was a necklace made from the 250-pound bear's claws and a set of earrings made from the 250-pound bear's teeth.

Mrs. Mabel Duggan, originator and general chairman of the event, said response from the ladies has assured continuation of series.

"TRY 'EM MY WAY"

We were having one of our usual "customer participation" days the other day, when I had a fresh cranberry.

"Cranberries at my house?" was the retort.

"Why not?" came the reply from behind a big apple d's play.

"How do you prepare them?"

"Oh, nothing special. My family doesn't like them."

"Why not try 'em my way?" asked our new home economist.

"It's pretty simple. Wash the berries and remove the bruised ones. Cook 1 lb. of cranberries in 2 cups of water until the skins start to pop. Add a cup of sugar, a cup of raisins, and cook under 5 minutes. Pour this into a serving dish, and when cool, top with nuts. The raisins help to take away the objectionable bitterness, and the nuts give it a crunchiness. Oh, before serving, I've had making but compliments or my cranberry sauce."

"Sounds wonderful!" replied the enlightened one as she picked up a pound of berries and asked, "Where are the raisins and nuts?"

After showing her to the right department, I began to think about all our wonderful customers. We have a lot of fun at our store and our customers make our job a lot more pleasant. Have you tried our friendly service group around and see what a difference it makes?

How do you like it?
